Mr. John E. Ryerson

Dear Mr. Ryerson:

Allen W. Dulles, Director of Central Intelligence, asked me to thank you for your note of 15 May 1958 recalling the very pleasant evening at Ed Bull's when he had an opportunity to talk with you. He looks forward to hearing from you upon your return from your out-of-town visit and hopes his plans at that time will be such that he can again have the pleasure of dining at the Editors' Building.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I have been meaning to write you a note ever since the evening of Ed Hull's dinner, to say how much I enjoyed having the opportunity to visit with you.

You will recall that I said one of these days we ought to have you back over here for lunch. I am going to be out of town for a bit, but when I return I will call your office and see if we can't arrange it.

Sincerely,
